

WIKTORIA CIOCH-GRADZIK

Sport is a large part of my life. It taught me time management and help me to gain ability to learn new things quickly. I have many interests, including history, reading fantasy books, and psychology. However, IT is the most important area in which I invest my time. Many of my activities focus on self-development and searching for opportunities in this field. I am a very creative person, which often allows me to quickly solve even more complex problems. I am also a patient person and willing to take on challenges. I treat problems as an opportunity to learn and find new paths to achieve my goals.
